

St. Joseph Hospital Heart and Vascular Center, Clinical Trials and Research Program and the CLEVER Trial Research Team, a NIH-funded trial, invite you to attend a dinner program featuring:

"Management of PAD and Claudication: Does Everyone Need a Stent?"

THURSDAY, JUNE 17, 2010 6:30 - 8 p.m.
MCCORMICKS AND SCHMICK'S FRESH SEAFOOD RESTAURANT
2791 N. MAIN ST.
ORANGE, CA 92832

For more information or to register, call 1-866-714-1777

TARGET AUDIENCE

Cardiologists, Interventional Radiologists, Vascular Surgeons, Internal Medicine and Family Practice physicians

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

- Determine why PAD is important to your patients and your practice
- Analyze the evidence for medical management of patients with PAD
- Assess the treatment options for patients with PAD

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

6:30 – 7 p.m. Hors D'oeuvres

7 – 8 p.m. Dinner Program

Management of PAD and Claudication: Does Everyone Need a Stent?

Guest Speaker: Timothy Murphy, M.D., FSIR, FAHA, FSVMB, FACR
Director, Vascular Disease Research Center
Rhode Island Hospital
National Principal Investigator, CLEVER Trial

SPONSORS

St. Joseph Hospital acknowledges National Institutes of Health (NIH) and Cordis, a Johnson & Johnson company, for supporting this event.

REGISTRATION

Registration requested by June 9, 2010. Seating is limited. 1-866-714-1777

1100 W. Stewart Dr.
Orange, CA 92868
www.sjo.org

First Class Mail
U.S. Postage
PAID
Santa Ana, CA
Permit No. 15