

Flu Clinic Locations 2009

Vaccination Recommendations (CDC):

Seasonal Flu (HCA's eligibility)

- Children aged 6 months up to their 19th birthday
- Pregnant women
- People 50 years of age and older
- People of any age with certain chronic medical conditions
- People who live in nursing homes and other long-term care facilities
- People who live with or care for those at high risk for complications from flu, including:
 - Health care workers
 - Household contacts of persons at high risk for complications from the flu
 - Household contacts and out of home caregivers of children less than 6 months of age (these children are too young to be vaccinated)

H1N1 (Swine Flu) Priority Groups (Anticipated that there will be enough supply over the next few months to give to everyone who wants it)

- Pregnant women
- People who live with or care for children younger than 6 months of age
- Healthcare and emergency medical services personnel
- Persons between the ages of 6 months and 24 years old
- People ages of 25 through 64 years of age who are at higher risk for 2009 H1N1 because of chronic health disorders or compromised immune systems.

Flu and vaccinations may be covered for eligible Medicare Part B patients who are not members of an HMO. (Some Medicare HMOs seem to be covering them though). Store will submit a claim to Medicare on your behalf. A Medicare card must be shown when services are provided.

All others not under Medicare:

- Walgreens = $24.99 (free if unemployed and looking for a job)
- CVS = $30 (free if unemployed and looking for a job)
- Albertsons, Costco, Senior Apts = $24.99
- Ralphs = $25.00 (locations not listed, call their nearest one to make sure an immunizing pharmacist is available)
